BINGHAM SCHOOL OF DANCE - All We Want for Christmas

Bingham School of Dance is celebrating teaching children, from the age of three upwards, to dance Ballet, Tap and Modern with a Christmas Show.

An 'All We Want for Christmas' dance show was held at Newark Palace Theatre on 20th – 22nd November 2009; it included past and present pupils. Music for the dances included 'Never do a Tango with an Eskimo', 'Jingle Bells', 'A Winters Tale', 'Ice, Ice Baby', 'Suzy Snowflake', 'Skaters Waltz', and 'I Wish it could be Christmas Everyday'. The show finale was danced to 'All I Want for Christmas' and ended with snow falling.

Profits raised from the show will go to Rosie May Children's Charity (www.rosie-may.com) and Clic Sargent (www.clicsargent.org.uk).

The school was established in 1982 at Church House, Bingham, by Mrs Shan Jones, the Principal Teacher. In its 25th year, 2007, the school expanded to Orston with Tap, Ballet and Modern classes being held at the Village Hall. The Principal Teacher at Orston, Mrs Lisa Murray, is an original pupil of Mrs Shan Jones.

After six months of hard work rehearsing for the show, the pupils made sure that they gave their best performances to ensure that 'All We Want for Christmas' was a great Christmas Show to start off the festive season.
