Rotary Club of The Vale of Belvoir

The Vale of Belvoir Rotary Club, serving Bingham, Cotgrave & Radcliffe-on-Trent communities and the villages in the Vale of Belvoir aims, through its Community Fund, to provide assistance to needy groups and individuals in the local communities as well as supporting international causes including disaster relief, water aid and Rotary's own worldwide fund to eradicate Polio.

The Club meets every Thursday evening at 7.30 at The Vale of Belvoir Inn on the A52 east of Bingham and if you want to make enquiries about our community fund, would like more information about future events or are interested in learning more about our Rotary Club then visit our web site (www.rotary1220.org/vob) or speak with Harry Thompson (01949 838173) or Mary Bridge-Collins (01949 843880)

Rushcliffe Photographic Society meets each Tuesday evening 8:00 till 10:00pm from September to May at The Tollerton Parish Rooms, Burnside Grove, Tollerton.

We are anxious to increase our membership a little this year and therefore cordially invite any enthusiastic photographers to come along to a couple of our meetings to see what we are all about, it does not matter whether you are a complete novice or already experienced photographer - all are welcome. Membership of a photographic club is without doubt one of the best ways to improve your skills as well as enjoying the fellowship of the club.

We have a very varied programme including, visiting speakers, practical evenings, competitions and the occasional photographic outing. Full details of the programme can be found on our web site www.rushcliffeps.co.uk

Anyone interested in the Rushcliffe Photographic Society may contact either Chairman Anthony Hall Tel: 01949 877968 or Secretary Irene Piziura Tel: 0115 9522904 or by email rushcliffeps@ntlworld.com

Bingham U3A is an organisation for retired people. It is affiliated to the national U3A, and currently has 18 small interest groups, ranging from Ambling to History to Wine. Most of them meet in members' houses to keep costs to a minimum. Joining - or forming a new group - is easy; just contact one of the people below to join the organisation, or come along to the monthly meeting. All members receive a monthly newsletter, which carries details of all the groups.

On Wednesday 15th April, at 2pm in the Methodist Hall, Brian Maddison will give a talk to U3A members entitled My Working Life – Underwater Diving. Joining U3A gives access to its 18 or so small interest groups. Contact Mike Patten (01949 831867) or Maggie Kemp (01949 876612).
